The editor of the Frankfort Commonwealth thinks that the real issue now is the right of a State to secede and the right to enforce obedience to the Constitution and law. He would like to know on what the right to secede is based, and on what the right to enforce obedience to the Constitution and law is based. He would like to know on what the right to secede is based, and on what the right to enforce obedience to the Constitution and law is based. He would like to know on what the right to secede is based, and on what the right to enforce obedience to the Constitution and law is based.

We suggest to the Commonwealth now to be moderate. The editor does not know what is coming here. He now proposes to unite all the loyal States into one party, by a reign of terror, after the example of the rebels. He exhorts the military to do very outrageous things with sympathizers. We make a note of it now; and a year or two hence we shall desire to know how the Commonwealth likes it. In view, then, of what may be, if we had no better reason, we shall reserve this right to coerce. We may see some of the present experiments tried on the one condition. They will see at once the enormity of such practices.

We shall give up the right to execute law by force, even if a State does resist. As we have before observed, we may have use for it.

But, Mr. Editor, that's not the issue at all. It is all right to execute law by force, if need be. That is not what you and your party are doing. You are breaking laws and constitutions by force, instead of putting them down. Children can't be trusted with edged tools, and the Commonwealth's party, for a similar reason, can't be trusted with force. They make matters worse with it, instead of better. They commit all sorts of blunders, wrongs and follies with force.

There is no doubt that, according to the Constitution of the British Empire, the mother country had a right to use force to execute law in the Colonies. She failed by her legislation, and the result was a rebellion. The opposition forbade the failure, and protested all the while. The issue, then, is no abstract question as to right, but the great practical question of the philosophy of government and the way to use its power to preserve it.

A meeting at Indianapolis declared the charge that the "Union" party intend to use military power to prevent a fair election as a slander upon Union men and our brave soldiers. We are glad to see that in Kentucky, the charge is certainly no slander on this side of the river, unless there is some juggle meant on the words a "fair" election. Perhaps it is fair to allow any one party to vote, assuming our opponents disloyal. If it is right to do this in Kentucky, it can't be wrong to do it in Indiana, and the charge is no slander on the side of the Union men, whether they be the Sons of Liberty, Loyal League or any other name. We have read over what has been published as the result of this order called the Sons of Liberty. If the Government live till such trumpery as that, it will live a thousand years yet.

The success of a party is gained by its moral power, and that is only maintained by open, bold and lawful action. If an opponent breaks laws and constitutions, let him have all the benefit derived from such conduct. He will destroy himself before the people if they are left to self-government. If they are not, then let them take what course they choose. We can stand it as well as they can.

We hope, however, to see some improvement now, that the "Union" party in Indiana feel indignant, that they are even expected of intending an unfair election by military interference. We hope they will come over to this side of the river and denounce the suspicions that their party would do such things as slanderous. No party in a free government ought to be suspected of such things. They ought to be above such suspicion.

The Frankfort Commonwealth suggests that the South has been made a unit by terror; by repressive measures used by the rebel Government, and exhorts to the same means of unity here.

The Commonwealth goes to a good school to learn bad practice. It seems sufficient to justify any measures with these one conditions: to show that the rebels do the like. It must be right if they do it. Such examples will do for one condition and a second; but don't bring them up for us loyal men, who want no such shabby examples for our guide, but laws and constitutions.

New Book.
GENERAL ORDERS OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT, embracing the years of 1861, 1862 and 1863. Adapted especially for the use of the Army and Navy of the United States. Chronologically arranged in two volumes, with a full Alphabetical Index. By Thos. M. O'Brien and Oliver D. Dwyer, Military Officers, Louisville, Kansas. New York: Derby & Miller.

The compilers of this work say in the preface: "We believe that the publication of all the orders in book form, to take the place of the great mass of orders issued in sheets without index, hitherto used by officers, will be appreciated by those whose proper discharge of duty calls for constant reference to the requirements of the various Departments of the Government; and we have earnestly endeavored to make the INDEX a valuable auxiliary to Staff Officers of Department and Division Headquarters, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Musterers and Disbursing Officers, Commissaries, Provost Marshals, and, in fact, the whole Field and Staff and Line of the Army. It is intended to be a volume of reference, and it is sold by John P. Morton & Co.

His Interview with Jeff Davis—Conversations About Peace.

The following extracts from an article in the September number of the Atlantic Monthly, entitled "Our Visit to Richmond," by J. R. Gilmore, give an account of the curious journey to the rebel capital recently taken by two loyal citizens. Mr. Gilmore accompanied Col. James, and gives a detailed account of their journey, treatment, and what they saw and heard. The following extracts from the article will give pretty fully the substance of it.

We went there in an ambulance, and we were met by a man who said he was Col. James. He was a man of about 40, with a mustache, and a man of about 50, with a mustache, and a man of about 60, with a mustache, and a man of about 70, with a mustache, and a man of about 80, with a NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.

Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the cost of the Daily Democrat.
Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year—always in advance.

Important to News Dealers.

We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.

LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT JOB OFFICE.—We
are now prepared to do all kinds of job printing, plain and in colors, at prices to suit the times and at the shortest notice.

PARADES ITEMS.—There was rather a lively time at the barracks yesterday. The recruits were two hundred and five recruits from Columbus, Ohio, eighty men from various points, en route for the front to rejoin their regiments, twenty-two deserters from St.
Louis, and seven from Indianapolis. Five prisoners were received for the military prison, who are to be sent to Lexington for trial by the Military Commission. The transfers were 380 convalescents to Nashville, twenty to Lexington, thirteen to St. Louis and eight to Cincinnati. Twenty-five negroes, belonging to the One Hundred and Eighth United States negro regiment, were sent to Owensboro. Two deserters were sent off in irons, as follows: One to Wheeling, Va., and one to Alton, Ill., to serve five years, in accordance with the sentence of a court-martial.

ROBERT OF THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS.— On Monday a robbery, which for daring exceeds anything we have lately recorded, occurred at the boarding-house of Darnell, on Green street, below Tenth. Some time during the forenoon, and while the inmates of the house were moving about, the room of John Smith, who had boarded at the house for some time, was entered, his trunk broken open, and three hundred dollars abstracted therefrom.
On the day of the robbery three young men, who were registered as from St. Louis, disappeared from the house, and it is supposed that they were the persons who committed the robbery.

A FEMALE EPT.—Yesterday Mrs. Alice Gordon Bennett was received in this city from the front to be tried as a rebel spy. It appears that a few days since she made her way through our lines near Atlanta, and under disguise had several communications with the officers in command, after which she endeavored to make her way back to the South. While endeavoring to pass through the lines she was arrested and sent to this city under guard.
She states that her husband is on the Wagon, one of Commodore Farragut's fleet, and at her own request she will be sent to New Orleans for trial.

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS.—The association will re-assemble this morning at nine o'clock. Let all teachers be present to contribute to the success of this important movement. The association will be addressed to-night at eight o'clock by Moses T. Brown, of Cincinnati. We trust that this eminent teacher will be greeted by an intelligent audience.

W. H. Ehrlich, the popular news dealer at the corner of Third and Main streets, has for sale portraits of Matt, the famous guide at Mammoth Cave. The store of Mr. Ehrlich is the only place this side of the cave where they can be procured, and as Mr. Ehrlich has a small supply, those wishing a copy should call at once.

The Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, candidate for Governor, Hon. Thomas A. Handicks and other eloquent speakers will address the citizens of New Albany to-day. Here is a fine opportunity for those of our city who wish to hear these eminent speakers discuss State and national affairs.

Gen. S. F. Cary is announced to speak at the east room of the courthouse on Thursday evening. Subject—the war and its results. The General is the American Eagle orator of Ohio. He is on a political pilgrimage, and will doubtless have a large audience to hear him.

The train which arrived from Nashville yesterday evening brought up two commissioned officers, twelve enlisted men and thirteen citizens as prisoners. They were all conducted in the military prison.

ROMANED MOVEMENT OF GUERRILLAS.—The city yesterday was filled with rumors of the advance of a rebel force into the Eastern portion of the State, but we were unable to trace them to any reliable source.

Christopher Persons was arrested here yesterday, charged with being a deserter from company D, Twenty-seventh Kentucky.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.—Pursuant to adjournment, the Council will assemble at the usual hour to-morrow night.

When you want job printing come to the Democrat Office, see samples and leave your orders.

The attentive messengers of Adams Express Company have our thanks for late favors,

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—The following transfers of real estate were made in the city of Louisville and Jefferson county from the 19th to the 23rd instant:

The Institution of the Ladies of the

are now prepared to do all kinds of job printing, plain and in colors, at prices to suit the
times and at the shortest notice.

ARREST OF HORSE THIEVES.—Scarcely a day passes that a number of notices are not received at the office of the Chief of Police, in regard to stolen horses, but in most instances our police have been unable to ferret out the thieves. Yesterday two men, George F.
Thompson and Luther B. Hays, brought to this city two horses which they sold to a merchant on Market street for one hundred and fifty dollars, which, considering the quality of the animals, was exceedingly low.
This fact was related to officers Gallagher and Gilchrist, and their suspicions were at once aroused and they became satisfied that the horses were stolen. A further investigation of the case proved that the horses were stolen from a Mr. Allen, who lives a few miles from Bedford, Trimble county, Kentucky. The officers then arrested the parties and placed them in jail. They will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

THE STEAMER ESSEX was stranded on a bar near Devil's Elbow, above Memphis, and in that condition was visited by a party of men calling themselves Confederate soldiers.
They robbed the guard and murdered eleven.
They were composed of deserters from both armies. After the robbery a dispute arose about dividing the booty, which ended in a violent quarrel and threats of vengeance between the parties. On Tuesday last one of the secondaries named Hudson, with a boy fourteen years old, concealed themselves near the road, that the balance of the party traveling might be assassinated by them. Others, learning their intention, crept up and shot them both, killing them instantly.
The perpetrators of the deed were arrested and taken to Memphis and put in prison.

FROM THE LOWER OHIO.—The officers of the steamer Lewelle, which arrived yesterday, report that the guerrilla gangs that have been infesting the river counties have nearly all disappeared. On Saturday night a small gang visited Stephenson and that neighborhood, stealing such articles as they could find.
Adam Johnson has been driven into Tennessee, and a large Federal force is still in pursuit of him. We have reasons to believe that our border troubles are ended, as the necessary force has been stationed along the river to put an end to the guerrilla outrages.

DURING Wheeler's recent raid near Dalton, a recruiting agent from Ohio, named John Gray, together with a lot of negroes, were captured by the rebel forces. Mr. Gray succeeded afterwards in making his escape.
During his brief sojourn among the rebels, they relieved him of upwards of four thousand dollars in money.

REBELS IN EAST TENNESSEE.—We learn that there is a considerable rebel force near Morristown, Tenn., who are engaged in threatening out wheat and carrying it through the lines of the Federal army.

Several months ago Dr. Geppert was arrested in this city upon the charge of forging discharge papers, and confined in the military prison, where he was kept in confinement until yesterday, when he was sent to Lexington for trial by court-martial.

The train from Nashville arrived on time last evening. There was nothing of importance transpiring along the line, no guerrillas being seen or heard of.

times and at the shortest notice.

The weather has been rather cool for several days past—cool for the month of August.

(For the Louisville Democrat.)
The Commission for the aid of the refugees desire to call the earnest attention of the citizens to the following important facts: The number of refugees now in the city and vicinity, who need our attention, is over a thousand, and more are constantly coming up from the front.

By a recent order of General Sherman there need be no further increase of these people at this point, and even those now here can be sent by Government transportation to other points North.

At present there are near two hundred at the refugee house on Tenth and Broadway, and about a hundred more at the house on Seventeenth and Broadway. Many more are scattered in the woods around New Albany, Jeffersonville and our own city. It is needed to dwell upon the temptations to which these latter are exposed.

Many of this class for the present support themselves by their own labor; but, as the season advances, they will find it most difficult to procure food, and many of them, being poorly protected from its storms and snows, and they will all flock instinctively into the city for aid.

It is our duty to provide for these now, and, by a little timely aid, prevent an accumulation of evils that will, in the winter months, be ten times more difficult to remove.

Efforts are being made to provide homes for these refugees in distant parts of the country.
In the meantime the condition of the sick and destitute among them is deplorable in the extreme. They are in immediate need of proper food, medical attention, medicines and care.
A few noble-hearted ladies of the city have been doing what they could from day to day, and the surgeons of the prison, Dr. Brown, has tried to do constantly as his other duties would permit.

There are children of every age—some as young as three years old—sitting on the porch for the want of proper care.

Men, women and children—a vast majority being women and children—will be together, destitute of families in one room, many of them, utterly destitute.

The Government issues army rations to soldiers' families alone, and all others must depend upon the benevolence among us for aid.

The Commission would therefore appeal, in the strongest terms, to the Christian charities and careful thought of our citizens—an appeal which has never been made in valor for funding whereby the sick and needy may receive proper care and support, but more especially whereby these refugees may all be collected for transportation to other points, where they can obtain permanent employment.

The following gentlemen have been appointed to solicit contributions, and they will at once enter upon the work.

A family in Chicago lost a daughter of seventeen years of age about two months ago. They could obtain no clue to her "whereabouts." The other night a hears was driven to the door, a coffin was taken out and placed in the hall, with the simple remark, "There is your daughter." Accompanying the remains was a keeper of a house of ill-fame.

A NAVY YARD IN NEW ORLEANS.—The Era announces that measures are in progress for the establishment of a navy yard in New Orleans, proposals having been already received for constructing a dry dock in the form of a basin, of masonry, and a floating dock similar to that which was destroyed at Pensacola.

Seven deserters from the Union ranks were shot at Newbern, North Carolina, on the 11th instant. Two of them were from New York, two from Rhode Island, and three from Connecticut regiments. One of them had deserted six times.

General Sherman has been appointed Major General in the regular army, to fill the place vacated by the promotion of General Grant.
